Eulalia Sanchez

Funeral services for Eulalia Perez Sanchez, 47, who died Sept. 22, were held Saturday in the Church of the Nativity, with the Rev. P. J. McGuinness officiating.

A native of Pasadena, Mrs. Sanchez lived at 1612 W. 208th St. She was a member of the Church of the Nativity. Rosary was recited at Stone and Myers Chapel on Friday. She was buried in Holy Cross Cemetery.

She is survived by two sons, Frank and Manuel Sanchez, and three daughters, Mrs. Sally Saenz, Mrs. Esther Fernandez, and Helen Sanchez, all of Torrance.

Bessie M. Esau

Funeral services for Mrs. Bessie M. Esau, 54, of Los Angeles, sister of South Bay businessman Mickey Elssa, were held in the Chapel of the Chimes in Inglewood yesterday, with Father James Meena officiating.

A native of Austria-Hungary, she was buried in Inglewood Park. She is survived by seven daughters, her brother, and a sister Mary Elssa, of Hermosa Beach.

Stone and Myers Mortuary handled funeral arrangements.

Alice Watton

Funeral services for Mrs. Alice Watton, 74, at the A. M. Gamby Chapel, were held Tuesday, with the Rev. Howard Rosine officiating. She was buried in Pomona Cemetery.

Mrs. Watton died Saturday in Torrance. A native of Birmingham, England, she lived in Lomita for 24 years. She lived at 26315 Governor Ave., Lomita. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Phillis K. Matthews, of Harbor City; a brother, Frederick Gascoigne, in England; three sisters, Mrs. Olive Chalton, of San Pedro; Mrs. Maude Benbow, in England, and Mrs. Hilda Lundstrom, of Minnesota, and three grandchildren.

2 Moved to Hawaii Base

Two Torrance men, Cpls. John Ray, 26, and Charles C. D. Woolver, 22, were recently transferred from the 2nd to the 25th Infantry Division and will soon leave Korea for Schofield Barracks, Hawaii.

The 25th division has been in Korea since July, 1950.

Ray, whose wife, Dorothy, lives at 20917 Margaret St., is a small-arms repairman. He entered the Army in March, 1953.

Woolver, whose wife, Diane, lives at 1039 W. 208th St., is a squad leader. The son of Everett Woolver, of 20422 S. Normandie Ave., entered the Army in August, 1953.

Both have been in Korea since April.

Local Winners Named By Gardena Company

Two Torrance residents walked off with a lion's share of the prizes in a contest sponsored recently by Tom Roady, Gardena Dodge-Plymouth dealer, it was announced yesterday.

Winning a modern gas range was D. C. Green, of 18038 Fay-smith Ave., while M. M. Araujo, of 5502 Clearsite Ave., won a girl's model bicycle.

Youth Groups Join All-Out Ice Follies Ticket Campaign

Torrance Youth Coordinating Council members are now pushing city-wide sales of coupons good for a reduction on price of a ticket to the Ice Follies for Sunday's Torrance Night at the Pan-Pacific Auditorium.

A good representation of Torrance individuals and organizations is expected to be on hand as Mayor Nicholas O. Drale presents Betty Schalow, Ice Follies star, with a bouquet as a token of their part in promoting youth activities.

Citizens may purchase 50-cent coupons from Youth Council members, allowing them a 50-cent reduction on Ice Follies tickets. The 50 cents remain in Torrance with the Council to be used in youth work.

Organizations cooperating with the Council are the Norreen Youth Club, Methodist Youth Fellowship, Torrance High School News Torch, Student Council, Senior Class Officers, Tartar Knights, Tartar Ladies, Debs. Profiers Car Club, and Chi-Rho Club, aided by the Torrance-Gardena Soroptimists.

Mrs. Herma Tillim, manager of the Personnel Agency, 1028 Gramercy Ave., also has coupons available.

Calif. Bank In Stock Sale

California Bank shortly is expected to authorize the sale of an additional 20,000 shares of $12.50 par common stock to stockholders, to build up its ratios and give the bank greater lending power, it was revealed recently.

At the same time, it is expected that the bank will increase its dividend rate to $1.80 a share from the present $1.60 basis.

Finch Heads Delegation To Meet Richard Nixon

A delegation from the 17th Congressional District, headed by candidate Robert Finch, will be among those who will greet Vice President Richard Nixon upon his arrival at International Airport, Oct. 10.

The Vice President will go directly to San Pedro to take part in Fishermen's Fiesta ceremonies.

YOUTH WORKERS . . . James Halle, high school boys' advisor, is flooded with requests from members of the Torrance Youth Coordinating Council to join in the city-wide attendance of Torrance High at the Ice Follies, Sunday. Working on the project are Larry Stamper, left; Peggy Wood, Jeff Carr, and Linda Thistle. Coupon sales for the event go toward operating costs of the Council.
